

NAB have no right to block any broadcast from xmradio. Instead of trying to block transmission of material the NAB should look at themselves in the mirror and notice how dismal broadcast radio is. The same songs are recycled over and over again. It appears PAYOLA lives on. Is there still the preverbial BROWN PAPER BAG. XM has given us a reason to switch on the radio again Michael Koonin